the name of her seducer.

HARRISBURG, March 29.—Mrs. John

Horne, of Washington, a county bordering

At her first confinement she became the General Ewing being the first and second.

The meeting was quite a lively one. R.

H. Bishop, son of Governor Bishop, took offense at a speech made by James S. Gordons, reflecting on some official actions of

"WE AREN'T GOING."

NEW YORK, March 29.—So far seven women have dropped out of the walking match at Gilmore's Garden, and several others are soon expected to retire. The physical condition of those still walking is in and content with the gay colors in which some of them are dressed. One of the walkers is old and gray-haired, and the others are sick and limp painfully.

The men and women spectators, who sit at ease for hours at a time, make themselves merry at the expense of the walking women, jeering at the gray hairs of one, and at the limp or pale face of another.

Most of those in attendance are tramps, who go in for cheap lodgings, and remain day after day. The show is patronized by notorious characters.
